

Photographed above at the Cherry Hill Wegmans are (l-r) Store Manager Carl Curtis, CHS of NJ Representatives Kate and Anna Acuna and Willow Zampino, Driscoll's Category Development Supervisor Nancy Mabes, Perishable Manager Jaime Colling-Bello and Produce Team Leader Tom Payne.

A Berry-Amazing Gift to At-Risk Infants and Children

NEW JERSEY - For the fifth year in a row, Driscoll's Berries and Wegmans partnered together during the height of strawberry season to raise funds for The Children's Home Society of New Jersey (CHS of NJ). By donating 50 cents for every package of Driscoll's strawberries sold at a NJ Wegmans market during the weekend of July 15-17, they were able to present CHS of NJ with a check for $15,000 to aid abused and at-risk babies in the agency's critical Infant Foster Care program.

"In today's difficult economy, we are especially grateful for this extraordinary gift from Driscoll's and Wegmans who teach us all the way to step up and be a caring community," states CHS of NJ President and CEO Donna Pressma. "We are completely dependent on fundraising donations to keep our medically fragile infant foster care program alive. The money raised will help provide food, medicine, cribs, blankets and more for our babies."

Founded in 1894, The Children's Home Society of New Jersey is a nonsectarian, not-for-profit agency that touches the lives of thousands of children and families each year through more than 44 programs in every counties of the state - including child welfare, adoption, foster care, behavioral health services, early childhood education and school-based curriculums.

For more information about this extraordinary organization, visit www.chsofnj.org or call 609-695-6274.